*Hail Kali!
Goddess of Confusion,
Harsh and Merciless are your ways.*

*Blessed are shattered dreams,
that force new growth
and Blessed is the Truth you expose.*

*Holy Kali!
Destroyer of everything,
Pummel us to dust
and Scorch us to ashes.
Tempered now, we arise anew.*

Much of our actions in the world are controlled by subconscious reactions and programming that we simply cannot force into alignment with our conscious intentions. An effective way to move the subconscious is through the use of sacred ritual. On this festival Day of the Dead (or All Soul's Day) we will invoke the goddess Kali to aid us in removing all blocks to achieving the peace and joy we deserve. We will use prayer, meditation, sacred movement and community sharing to gently shift us into the season where the veil is thin. We will finish the evening with a traditional Tibetan Fire Puja ritual to burn away what is no longer needed.

Our answers lie within us. Sacred ritual is one way to access our truth and power.
